PROJECTS

Automated Attendance System Using Face Recognition:

- Developed an innovative facial recognition-based attendance system to streamline attendance tracking in educational and organizational settings, ensuring accurate real-time data collection and enhancing administrative efficiency with a user-friendly interface and robust security measures.
- Created a user-friendly web interface that allows easy navigation and interaction with the system.
- Implemented features for administrators and instructors to manage user roles, add courses, and monitor attendance history.

Guess The Flag:

- Developed an interactive mobile game allowing users to guess flags from various continents including Americas, Europe, Asia, Africa, and a challenging "Master Vexillologist" mode.
- Players explore geographic knowledge through flag identification, enhancing their understanding of world flags while enjoying engaging gameplay features.
- Includes a leaderboard feature to track and display top scores, fostering competition among players while testing their flag recognition skills.
